

Gladwin Business & Professional Association
Minutes, August 3, 2016

There was not a quorum but here is the information that was discussed.

Stout read the minutes of 7-06-2016 meeting minutes/ one correction Leadership is $350 not $300 as stated in the minutes.

Stout gave treasurer's report

General	$7,218.88
FOL	$3,630.56
Arts	$4,231.79
Shop G	$1,690.00
TOTS	$13,373.00
Savings	$ 340.84

76 paid members

Old business:

Retro Roll In and Arts and Craft Festival went very well.

Tuesday's in the Park

New Business:

Calendar ads – Tammy will get price out to the board for approval

Business after Hours - Thursday @ Alexander Enterprises from 6 – 8 pm

Thunder on the strip – September 10th at the airport

Updates:

Bob – household waste 8-27-2016 from 9am – 2pm

Farmers market averaging 600 people each Saturday

New sign will be installed at the Gladwin City Hall in about 8 weeks

Flags will be coming down to clean and reinstalled right before Labor Day

Beaverton Activity Center is in the final 4 community projects – please vote @ mml.org

Flowers are beautiful – thank you Gail Inscho

Joel Vernier stated that 1,341 people attended the exhibit of the Shroud of Turin – donation box was filled to the brim

K of C will have their fish fry 2nd Friday of every month from 4 – 7 pm – benefactor of this one is Friends of the Library Dolly Pardon Foundation books for kids.

Anna @ Edward Jones stated she is looking for an office administrator

Yvette from the Chamber stated the Relay for Life will be this weekend in Beaverton from 10am – midnight , ORV Poker Run details, meet the candidates set for 9-29-2016, Chamber website is up and running along with the calendar of events.

Northern Espresso will be opening the 2nd week in August possibly

Heather from the Riverwalk Place stated she will be raffling off another Jeep – cost is $30 per ticket with maximum of 700 tickets sold – or winner could win $10k in prize money

Merrily Ever After – Brides Across America – great event – something maybe the town could team up together and make it something special for the brides – this year there were 6 brides.

Karen Blatt reminded everyone of the Holiday Hunt

Gladwin County Emergency Responders dinner/dance set for 9-24-2016 from 6 – 12pm the cost of sponsoring a table is $200

Lori J. Stout